

HUGHES MAINTAINS LEAD OVER WILSON

G. O. P. NOMINEE HAS 239 ELECTORAL VOTES

WILSON RECEIVES 232 VOTES-- SIXTY STILL DOUBTFUL

President's California Majority Dwindles To a Little More Than 1,400 With One-fifth of Districts Missing—Wilson's Minnesota Lead Steadily Decreases and Republican Managers Claim the State—Delaware and New Hampshire Definitely Turn to Republican Column.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—On the second day after the American people cast their presidential ballots the result still is in doubt and the contest between President Wilson and Charles Evans Hughes has narrowed down to a point where it may be decided by a few western states. It is within the range of possibilities that the votes of national guardsmen on border duty might turn some of the doubtful states from one column to another. Based on actual returns received by The Associated Press the electoral college now gives Hughes 239 votes, Wilson 232 and leaves sixty doubtful.

Two of the metropolitan newspapers which supported Mr. Hughes give him 252 votes, President Wilson 251 and admit the doubtful character of only California, New Mexico and Minnesota. Another, which supported the president agrees with its contemporaries in giving him 251 votes but concedes Mr. Hughes 228 and regards the others—in seven states as doubtful. Each of the national chairmen expresses serene confidence that the ultimate results will elect his candidate. With the contest narrowing steadily to close votes in the vital spots, recounts are almost inevitable and each side is on the watch for irregularities.

There is no assurance that the result will be fully known in another day.

Tireless vigils were kept by anxious watchers tonight at headquarters of both the Democratic and Republican national committees. Bulletins from states in which the results are still in doubt were scanned even more eagerly than they were last night.

Apparently the rank and file of Wilson adherents who had no opportunity to celebrate last night were determined to make up tonight for what they had missed. A crowd of such proportions that it blocked traffic for blocks in Forty-second street gathered in front of Democratic headquarters. Two bands joined forces in playing "The Star Spangled Banner" and all kinds of noise-making implements were used enthusiastically.

Crowds gathered in front of newspaper offices scanning the bulletins posted.

Chairman Willcox in a statement at midnight said: "Every precaution must be made to secure an honest count of the ballots in every close state. Anybody who intimates that Charles Evans Hughes would permit any man or group of men to attempt to steal the presidency for him is a contemptible scoundrel and knows it."

"I say further, with a full sense of responsibility to the American people that any man or group of men who attempt to steal the presidency from Mr. Hughes will do so at their peril."

Chairman McCormick issued the following statement: "President Wilson is re-elected and Mr. Willcox shows he is aware of that fact. His wail in reply to charge of some imaginary person that some one expects Mr. Hughes or his managers will try to secure the election thru fraud is worthy of the traditions of the Republican party."

"The public has had a chance to judge the conduct of the campaigns of the two candidates and I am perfectly willing to let the people decide which side will be likely to resort to desperate methods."

Chester H. Rowell, chairman of the Republican state central committee predicted tonight Hughes' election in California by a small majority. Mr. Rowell's statement followed:

"Figures gathered by the Los Angeles office of the Republican state committee covering more than 1,000 precincts and close estimates of the remaining precincts now remaining indicate Hughes will carry Los Angeles county by 23,000."

"The Los Angeles office estimates this lead will be increased 12,000 more by other southern California counties. If these figures are borne out by the final count Hughes will carry California."

"Our figures on San Francisco indicate a majority of 15,000 for Wilson."

Excites Interest Thruout London

Opinion Is Apparently Much Divided Regarding United States National Election.

London, Nov. 8, 4:06 p. m.—The presidential election in the United States excited intense interest thruout London. The morning newspapers announced that Charles E. Hughes had been elected beyond doubt and this was taken for granted until the tickers and the early evening newspapers showed that the issue was in doubt. From that time forward excited groups assembled in the clubs and hotels scanning the latest returns.

Newspapers placards all featured the election and virtually all the evening papers printed editorials on the assumption that Hughes had been elected. This really is the first time that London had felt a personal interest in the presidential election with opinion apparently much divided.

FOUR HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT AT VIRGINIA

Car Turned at Corner As Occupants Were Returning From Beardstown—Cass Has Republican State's Attorney—Other Democrats Win.

Virginia, Ill., Nov. 8.—What might be termed an "election" accident took place here this afternoon when an automobile turned turtle, while nearing town and four men, who had been to Beardstown to inquire into the political situation in the nation at large, were shaken out and dealt sundry painful injuries. The car was driven by Fred Hillen, an east Cass farmer. The accident happened as the men were rounding a corner and the chauffeur lost control for some unknown reason.

The injured: William J. Jacobs, arm and collar bone broken; Leslie White, bruised about the neck and shoulders; Clarence Martin, hurt about the head and face; Clarence Martin, hurt about the head and face, and Mr. Hillen, minor bruises.

The men were all brought to Virginia and Drs. McGhee and Blackburn were called to give aid.

McClure a Winner.

A. T. Lucas of Chandlerville, for eight years state's attorney of Cass county, went down to defeat Tuesday at the hands of his Republican opponent, Lloyd McClure, of Beardstown, winning by a plurality of five hundred votes.

The remainder of the Democratic ticket was elected. L. D. Springer for circuit clerk and Robert Lowden for county commissioner.

Rippling Rhymes
By WALT MASON

AFTER THE FUSS.

The campaign's done; those statesmen won for whom we have been rooting; the vanquished sail the Salt Creek trail, and raise their doleful hooting. Now let us turn to work and earn some good old honest guilders; work on with zest—that fortune's best of which we are the builders. If we should wait till statesmen state our path to wealth and glory, we'll be obscure and beastly poor when we are bent and hoary. If you depend, misguided friend, on government, to aid you, you'll weep some morn at how fortune that sort of graft has made you. If you put faith in such a wraith as campaign vows and thunder, you'll be a joke and you'll go broke, while others nail the plunder. The easy skates bear candidates and think it's truth they're speaking, but all they say is just the play of tireless wind-mills creaking. We have to strive to keep alive, and have our daily dinner, and clothe the kids and buy them lids, whatever statesman's winner.

CLEO RIDGLEY and WALLACE REID

In a Gripping Drama

The story of "The Love Mask" has to do with the adventures of a young woman who on the death of her parents through the mad rush for California gold in 1849, was forced to seek out a claim and elude her own existence by panning gold. How she strikes a mother lode, only to have it taken away from her—how she disguises herself as "Silver Spurs"—a notorious bandit—how the sheriff, in love with her, is torn between conflicting emotions and how it is all finally straightened out, is told in one of the most novel stories the Lasky company has ever offered to the public.

ORLEANS COUNTRY CLUB HAS ANNUAL MEETING

Sixty Guests Gather at Home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Curry of Pisgah—Good Program Given.

The annual open meeting of the Orleans Woman's Country club was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Curry of Pisgah, with guests to the number of sixty present, in spite of bad weather. After the program a bountiful supper was served and the social time which followed was made merry with several clever contests. The annual meetings of the Woman's Country club are always the subject of pleasurable anticipation. The gathering Wednesday was no exception to this rule for each one present enjoyed the occasion to the utmost.

The president's address was given by Mrs. Fred H. Mueller, who couched her remarks in verse and the secretary's report took the form of a fanciful dialogue, written in 1920. This prophecy of the future was given by Mrs. W. T. Scott and her predictions for each of the members caused much interested speculation.

Musical and literary numbers were given as follows:

Duet—Mrs. A. E. Curry and Miss Effie Lukeman.

Club song—Mrs. Henry Welborn, Miss Violet Davis, Mrs. George Hardwick and Mrs. A. A. Curry.

Reading: "A Woman's Wednesday." Anonymous.

"The Usual Way." Riley.

"When de Folks Come Home." Riley.

Miss Bernice Wood.

Miss Wood gave an encore, "If I Should Die Tonight," by Ben King. Vocal solo—"In a Dutch Garden"—Miss Violet Davis.

Mrs. Curry was assisted in the preparation of the supper by the following hostesses: Mrs. J. T. Holmes, Mrs. Clark Stevenson, Mrs. J. W. Arnold and Mrs. Harry Rice. On the program committee were Mrs. Ernest Walters, Mrs. Clyde Cox and Mrs. Ed Tindall.

Carnations and chrysanthemums were used in decoration.

VOTE CANVASS HERE
TO BEGIN TODAYCORRECTED UNOFFICIAL RE-TURNS FAVORABLE TO C. W.
BOSTON.Now Has Lead Over F. B. Henderson for Circuit Clerk—Special Propositions Carry—Local Interest High as Presidential Estimates Shift.The official canvass of the vote in Morgan county will begin today with County Clerk Boruff, S. J.
Camm of Franklin and J. Harry Beerup of Alexander constituting the election board.It developed yesterday that an error had been made in the printed returns from Nortonville and some other slight changes were found which changed the total in the contest between F. B. Henderson and C. W. Boston, candidates for election to the office of circuit clerk, in favor of Mr. Boston. The majority now claimed for him is 17. Some other changes may be found in the official canvass and there is, therefore, some doubt about the result but with the changes favorable to the election of Mr. Boston.Special Propositions Carry The figures on the tuberculosis sanatorium, soldiers' monument and other propositions are not available, but, as stated yesterday, it is known that on the tuberculosis sanatorium proposition the vote was favorable by practically three to one. The soldiers' monument is believed to have carried two to one, with a majority vote in favor of the tax amendment and banking law propositions.Women Showed Interest
The completed vote of Morgan county women is not available but from the figures at hand it is evident that the women were deeply interested in the presidential result.
Twenty precincts gave Hughes 2,462 and Wilson 2,245. As most of the precincts still to hear from are normally Republican it is apparent that Hughes received a goodly majority of women as well as men in this county.Estimates Change
There was almost as much interest in election topics Wednesday as there had been election night.
During late Tuesday night and until 9 or 10 o'clock Wednesday morning the nomination of Hughes seemed certain. Then figures began to come indicating the loss of several states which had been previously counted as safely in the republican column. This led to the belief
Wednesday afternoon that President Wilson was assured of re-election.
At 5 o'clock in the afternoon the Democratic national committee claimed the nomination for President Wilson with a certain vote of 268 and the possibility of 288. At the same time Chairman Willcox of the Republican committee declared that Hughes was certain of 277 votes.Result Still in Doubt The developments of the next few hours indicated that the Democratic claims were the better founded and that President Wilson had excellent chances of winning California, Minnesota and North Dakota. Still later there came changes in these three states favorable to Mr. Hughes and the situation may now be summed up as very much in doubt.With the returns available favorable to President Wilson.The latest estimate by the Associated Press was Hughes 239; Wilson 222, and 69 in doubt.FURS BELOW COST

MR. AND MRS. COARD WERE MARRIED FIFTY YEARS AGO

Golden Wedding Anniversary Was Celebrated In Jacksonville Wednesday.

A delightful social event yesterday afternoon and evening was the celebration of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Coard at their pleasant home, 127 Diamond Court, the afternoon hours being from 2 to 5 and the evening from 8 o'clock on. The house was handsomely decorated with cut flowers, in the parlor yellow and white chrysanthemums, yellow roses in the library and yellow chrysanthemums in the dining room.

In the afternoon a program was carried out and a feature of it was a beautiful poem written for the occasion by Mrs. Coard's fellow W. C. T. U. worker, Mrs. Harriet Daniel of Murrayville. In the evening a brilliant company assembled and a very delightful time was enjoyed by all. Mr. and Mrs. Coard stood at the head of the receiving line and enjoyed the hearty congratulations of a host of friends. Also in line were Mrs. W. M. Leffew of St. Louis, Mrs. Samuel Haggard of Virden, Dr. and Mrs. Todd, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Chipchase, Miss Eola Haggard and Miss Adele Roberts of Virden, Esther Chipchase and Patricia Speth were receiving fairies and were beautiful in white organdy with sash and hair ribbons of yellow and carrying large yellow chrysanthemums. Mrs. Coard was arrayed in a lilac colored satin dress, with trimmings of duchess rose point lace, an heirloom of her family. Excellent refreshments were served during the evening and greatly enjoyed by all.

Born in St. Andrews.

Frank M. Coard was born of Scotch parentage in St. Andrews, N. B., and when quite a lad his people moved to Robinson, Me. His father was a blacksmith and worked on the iron work of vessels and on account of the shipbuilding moved to his new location. Some years afterward the family moved to Eastport, Me. and there a cousin of F. M. Coard visited them and influenced the father to move west, which he did in 1855. The family settled in Payson, Ill., and F. M. Coard worked on a farm by the month for several years.

Mr. Coard came to Jacksonville in 1859. He helped gather the corn crop, split white oak rails and posts and chopped cord wood for C. Kingman, who lived two and one-half miles northwest of Jacksonville. The next year he carried on the farm owned by Andrew Wilson, now South Jacksonville, commencing at South Main street and the Vandalia road. This was the time of the Lincoln and Douglas campaign of 1860. In this campaign Mr. Coard joined the "Jacksonville Wide-Awakes," commanded by John King and Gen. B. H. Grierson, and played the cornet with the drum and fife. They went all over the state and on the 8th of August, 1860, at Springfield attended the biggest ratification that was ever held in that county. Mr. Coard declares that he never felt prouder in all his life than he did as a boy when he shook hands with Abraham Lincoln on the doorsteps of Mr. Lincoln's home.

The Wide-Awakes.

The "Wide-Awakes" continued in the campaign till after the election. Not being of age, Mr. Coard could not vote, altho he looked so matured with a beard which he wore that his friends urged him to vote. He said no that if he were to consult Mr. Lincoln he was sure that he would not advise him to vote until he was of legal age. So Mr. Coard did not vote at that election. He says that before time to vote again, the Democratic legislature cut the soldiers out of their votes and old Governor Yates dismissed the members of the legislature and sent them home. Mr. Coard was then making his home with the Rev. D. D. Holmes, living five miles southeast of Jacksonville.

Mr. Coard declares that he had made up his mind that he would not labor on a farm by the month all of his life, altho he realizes now it was one of the most valuable pieces of education he ever received. That winter he worked mornings and evenings and Saturdays to pay his board and attended a country school taught by Charles Levings, a Connecticut Yankee. He says of his teacher: "No one could get by him until he knew the subject taught."

Early Struggles.

In the spring, Mr. Coard hired out to Bedford Brown's boys, John and Bob, who lived in the neighborhood. He was to work five months for $75 and board, which he did and saved out of the amount $12. The $3 he spent in purchasing two pairs of overalls, two "hickory" shirts, a pair of plow shoes and a straw hat. He attended the school taught by the Yankee school teacher for another term, worked similar to the year before and paid part of the $72 saved. At the close of school Mr. Levings gave the class written diplomas and to Mr. Coard he gave a recommendation to the county superintendent, who was Thomas Springer of Jacksonville. He got a horse and rode nine miles to town to see the superintendent only to find that he was gone to Springfield. His wife said he wouldn't be back till 9 o'clock at night. Mr. Coard waited to see him and when he returned the superintendent said that it was too late to examine the young man that night. However, when he said that he had come nine miles and had waited a long time, Mr. Springer told him to come up stairs. There he examined the young student and told him that he could only give him a second grade certificate. Mr. Coard was glad to get this recognition and started home. He then started in to hunt a school and walked until he had blistered his feet without finding the chance to teach.

Enlisted in Army.

On the ninth of August, 1862, Mr. Coard went into Waverly and enlisted as a private in Co. G, 101st Ill. Infantry, Robert McKee, captain, a man of fine mind. He started the little abolition sheet in St. Louis, which subsequently grew into the Globe-Democrat, published by his cousin, Wm. McKee. The regiment was sent to Cairo and then to Holly Springs, Miss., where six of the companies were captured and three escaped. Mr. Coard's among the latter. They saw service along the Mississippi river, ran three blockades and took part in the campaign at Vicksburg. Then to various other fields the men went as is well known to all acquainted with the history of the famous 101st. They served in the Army of the Cumberland, were in Sherman's march to the sea, and back thru the Carolinas to Raleigh, where he was ordered to the hospital by the surgeon, but as soon as able he did duty as ward guard. He was detailed to see to transfer of 2100 convalescents to a boat for New York and says he was the only private who ever commanded a brigade without loss. He went to Washington and was mustered out at Springfield, on June 15, 1865.

At Shurtleff College.

He entered Shurtleff college at Upper Alton and went to work with zeal and industry. The change and troubles incident to army life along with hard work outside and scant fare undermined his health and he had to leave college. He returned to Waverly and clerked for some time for Salter, Lankton & McKee, granger store till they dissolved, when he went into business in furniture and undertaking. He did well till a fire burned $4,800 worth of goods for him and it was at the only time he had no insurance. About 25 years ago he moved to Jacksonville and continued in the undertaking business till he sold out a few years ago, retaining his undertaker's license. He always tried to do good to bereaved families he served.

Married in 1866.

Nov. 8, 1866 he was married to Miss Mary Eunice Knapp of Waverly. Mrs. Coard was active in the "evangelical" movement. The Frances Willard temperance and the W. C. T. U. and at the same time has been active in church work and all good causes.

Mr. Coard was prominent in a movement in Waverly which resulted in fining liquor sellers $90 each, put drug stores under bond not to sell without doctor's prescriptions. He did much to keep Waverly dry and temperate, giving time and money liberally. He was one of the first to organize a G. A. R. post. In May, 1915 Mr. and Mrs. Coard went west to enjoy their first vacation in fifty years and were much improved by the climate of California. Mr. Coard has never used intoxicating liquors, has been for the best man politically and has had good habits. He has been a member of the Baptist church 58 years. Not being blessed with children Mr. and Mrs. Coard have raised five homeless little ones who have called them blessed.

Mr. and Mrs. Coard are yet in excellent health and bid fair to live years to come respected and honored by a large circle of friends.

GENERATOR PROPOSITION WON IN SPRINGFIELD.

A great many Jacksonville people were interested in the vote on the proposition in Springfield of purchasing a reserve generator for the municipal water plant there. The people voted in favor of the proposition three to one. This result was especially gratifying to Commissioner Willis J. Spaulding, who as head of the Springfield city light department has taken the lead in the development of the municipal light and water plant. When the original generator was purchased the utility company in Springfield insisted upon a vote of the people and the majority was strongly in favor of the generator.

When the proposal was made for the acquiring of a reserve generator the company again circulated petitions which made it necessary to hold the election. The contest between the utility company and the citizens of Springfield has been very bitter in a number of instances as the company has opposed every movement made for the development of the city plant.

JACOB FRISCH.

Elected Member of General Assembly. Jacob Frisch of Springfield wishes thru The Journal to express his appreciation to his friends in Morgan county for the strong support given his candidacy. Mr. Frisch polled a large vote in Morgan county and in Sangamon county led by 3000 votes. He becomes a member of the assembly by a total vote of 24,202.

Mr. Frisch, as previously mentioned in The Journal, is a brother of Henry Frisch of this city, and has for years been a highly respected citizen of Springfield. While holding office as chairman of the board of supervisors of Sangamon county he made an exceptional record.

TWO KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Joseph Parks and Clarence Brockman Met Death While in Racing Car Near Beards-town—Two Others Injured.

Joseph Parks and Clarence Brockman of Mt. Sterling were instantly killed Tuesday evening about 10 o'clock when the automobile in which they were riding missed a bridge and went into a ditch on the Coal Creek levee and drainage district near Beards-town.

Harry Burgess of Chicago is in Dr. Scherer's hospital in Beards-town with injuries that probably will prove fatal and William Arnel of Mt. Sterling has a broken leg while Edward Parks of Mt. Sterling is suffering from minor bruises.

The men in an Overland car owned and driven by Joseph Parks had been to Beards-town Tuesday evening to hear election returns. It is said that on their return home they were racing with another car when they missed a bridge and went into one of the lateral ditches adjacent to the roadway. The occupants of the car they were racing with did not know of the accident and kept on their way. Another car which passed soon afterward discovered the men and took care of the injured men and notified the authorities.

Joseph Parks who was killed is a retired farmer and is well known in Brown county. Brockman also comes from a well known family in Mt. Sterling and was 23 years of age. Burgess who was badly injured is a son-in-law of Parks and Edward Parks is a cousin. The accident occurred in Schuyler county and the coroner of that county was notified and held an inquest.

W. H. STEAD LIKELY TO GET BEST POST

Sterling and Mason are in line for Preference—Various Deneen Appointees May Hold Over—Yates and Funk on Utility Commission Perhaps.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 8.—(Special)—William H. Stead of Ottawa, former Attorney General, is slated to become chairman of the State Public Utilities Commission by appointment of Governor Elect Frank O. Lowden.

This is the general opinion among Republicans who have been closely associated with the Lowden campaign. Mr. Stead was the manager of the Lowden primary campaign, devoting to the task practically his entire time for a year or more. It is conceded that he can have anything within the gift of the new governor. Mr. Stead would succeed William L. O'Connell who has been Governor Dunne's chief political manager as well as head of the most important state commission.

Frank H. Funk of Bloomington, who is now one of the minority members of the Utilities Commission, undoubtedly will be retained on the board. Mr. Funk was appointed by Governor Dunne as a Progressive. He was one of the first of a group of former Progressives who declared themselves for Colonel Lowden early in the primaries campaign.

Former Gov. Richard Yates is a Republican member of the commission at present. If he is retained only two Democratic places will remain to be filled.

Members of the Utility Commission and of many other state boards were appointed for definite terms, but it is assumed that resignations will be speedily forthcoming if desired by Colonel Lowden.

Fred E. Sterling, of Rockford, chairman of the Republican state committee and manager of the Lowden election campaign, is in line for some good plums. Joseph Mason former secretary of the state civil service commission and public city manager during both the Lowden primary and election campaigns may be made chairman of that commission.

Former Deneen appointees who have been active in the Lowden campaign and probably will be applicants for their old jobs include A. H. Jones of Robinson, former state food commissioner; Edgar T. Davies, of Chicago, former chief state factory inspector; E. J. Murphy of Joliet, former warden of the penitentiary; and Charles M. Timmy of Springfield, former institution auditor in the executive office.

In recognition of Charles S. Deneen who took the stump for Col. Lowden after opposing him in the primaries, it is probable that several Deneen men who hold minority appointments under the Dunne administration will be retained.

These include Thomas J. Healy, member of the rivers and lakes commission, and W. B. Moulton at present member and former chairman of the civil service commission.

Joseph G. Gamber of Ottawa, former assistant attorney general and present law partner of Mr. Stead probably will receive some good appointment if he desires it.

Will Colvin of Springfield, present Republican member of the state board of pardons will be retained under the Lowden administration.

TO THE REPUBLICAN WOMEN OF MORGAN COUNTY

While at this moment the result in the nation is still in doubt, yet the Republican women in Morgan county together with those of Illinois, made a splendid record of voting for Hughes, peace, prosperity and national honor. It proves that the women understood the great issues underlying the campaign, and spoke in no uncertain terms their belief in the principle of the Republican party, which stands for the protection of American lives, honor and industry.

The Woman's Hughes committee desires to thank in this public way all who so nobly contributed to the fine result. The organization in many precincts was all that could be desired, and we feel that the women of Morgan county have in this way most notably advanced the cause of woman's suffrage, and better laws for women and children throughout the breadth of our land.

LOOK OUT FOR COLDS—CATARRH

Don't Let This Winter Bring To You the Annoyance of Catarrh and Suffering Which Every Man and Woman Who is Afflicted with This Disease, Has Cause To Dread

First of all remember, if you will continue to suffer with catarrh, it is your own fault. Catarrh is worse in winter because the most common place precautions against germs and contaminations are neglected.

We go to stuffy theatres and inhale over and over again vitiated and germ-laden air. We sit in over-heated rooms, neglect exercise, exclude fresh air because it's cold, and in a hundred ways do everything possible to assist in the ravages of a disease that is already making tremendous progress towards a complete sapping of vitality. It is small wonder that winter brings additional annoyance to catarrh sufferers. The nostrils, reasonably free in summer, are easily stopped up by the inflammation of the tender membrane, and the phlegm and secretions which cannot readily flow, aggravate the delicate lining of the throat and poison the system. Hawking and spitting becomes more frequent. In fact, catarrh is not only a nuisance, danger and annoyance to the afflicted, but a continued menace to everybody. Anyone who comes in contact with catarrhal germs, expectorated or exhaled in stuffy rooms, poorly ventilated theatres or cars, may contract the disease. They'll think they have taken cold, but it is more likely that this insidious waster of strength and vigor has fastened itself upon them. They will soon know the catarrhal headache, the disagreeable closing of air passages, they may find it attacking the bones of the nose, the tissues of the ear, resulting in deafness, the loss of smell, for no part of a body is secure from the ravages of catarrh. Catarrh makes you sick all over. It is a disease of the blood. It circulates through the system and for this reason sprays, washes, vapours and salves must be failures in curing it. You can relieve catarrh thoroughly and permanently. S. S. S. will cleanse the blood, relieve unhealthy secretions, reduce the membranous swelling. It will literally wash the blood free from the poison. S. S. S. goes directly to the source of trouble, while it cleanses the blood. It is a wonderful tonic invigorator. Write us particulars of your case and let our physicians help you get rid of this stubborn and dangerous malady. Our physicians are trained specialists; their services cost you nothing. We will take pleasure in answering questions. S. S. S. is for sale at drug stores. Refuse imitations. Write the Swift Specific Company, Medical Department, Room 15, Atlanta, Ga.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

Other Elections

By Ensley Moore

Member Illinois State Historical Society.

No election since 1860 has been so important to the nation, and to Illinois, probably, as that of November 7, 1916. But each quadrennial has its peculiar and interesting features.

Pierce's Election. The first national contest the writer can recall was that of 1852, when Gen. Franklin Pierce, Democrat, of New Hampshire, was chosen our chief magistrate.

His party followers had an illumination in the town of Perry, in Pike county, when the result was known—news traveling slowly in those days. The illumination was with candles in the windows, and, consequently, not very brilliant. It was helped out by a bonfire in front of the stores on the main street. Quite a good deal of snow had fallen, and the Democrats retired rather early to their rest.

Joseph Noyes, brother of the Rev. Geo. C. Noyes, and uncle of Dr. Fred Noyes of this city, was boarding at the home of Joshua Moore that winter, going to school. Mr. Moore was away from home at the time and the good lady of the house felt nervous for fear of fire, and she asked "Joe" to go out and throw some snow on the dying embers. He did so, it only taking one or two snowballs to put out what was left of the Democratic celebration.

Buchanan's Day. James Buchanan, Democrat, of Pennsylvania, was Mr. Pierce's successor, elected in 1856. That was quite an exciting campaign. Buchanan, Fremont, and former President Millard Fillmore being the candidates.

Jacksonville had two notable meetings that year, one by the Republicans, and the other by the Fillmore men. That year the state of Illinois took power from the Democracy, and elected Col. Wm. H. Bissell, a hero of the Mexican War, of Belleville, as Governor. The entire Republican state ticket was chosen with Col. Bissell. That being the first time the party of Freedom carried the state.

In those early days it used to be the custom for each party to try to have the highest pole, in a prominent place, on which to hoist the national flag and a streamer with the names of the respective candidates. These poles were tall and large, and a wonder in their time.

1860. It was in 1860 that the great battle between Lincoln, Douglas and Breckinridge was fought out, with John Bell, of Tennessee, as the "Union" candidate.

Lincoln and Douglas were from Illinois, as need scarcely be stated, and John C. Breckinridge, vice president with Buchanan, was from Kentucky. When the battle was over it had been decided by the two men from Illinois, who had the largest popular votes.

"There were giants in those days," and the burning question was Slavery.

The South declared Lincoln was a "sectional" President, and proceeded to secede, even before he had taken the reins of power in hand. Then came the long bloody conflict, and another man from Illinois was the victorious leader in it.

Jacksonville had already furnished a Republican Superintendent of Public Instruction, in Newton Bateman, in 1858, and Richard Yates was selected by the Republicans as the future greatest War Governor, in 1860.

Lincoln, Yates, Grant! All of Illinois, and Stephen A. Douglas, formerly of Jacksonville, one of the most important factors in determining the result.

The campaign was a very exciting one, and Benj. H. Grierson, since and before of Jacksonville, but then of Mercedosa, was an active supporter of Lincoln and Yates, with his music during the political battling.

The great features of that year's carrying on were the Republican Wide Awakes, and the Democratic Hickories, in the ranks of both of which organizations many a young man got a semi-military training of value to him in the hot days from 1861 to 1865.

The election was on Tuesday, of course, and Wednesday night Ben. Grierson, Samuel P. Thompson and Eugene E. Ryeland, of the Mercedosa band, came up and serenaded Governor Yates. He came out on the wooden awning, in front of his office, on East State street, and made a speech in response to the call of his friends. The first snow of 1860 fell on his fine, brown hair, as he stood uncovered before the crowd.

1864. The year 1864 brought its wild days of warfare and of political conflict, and the people of the North again called Abraham Lincoln to the Presidency.

A remarkable feature, locally, of that campaign, was the presence of Gen. Joseph Hooker here, and making a short speech, at the great Republican rally of that Fall. A special peculiarity of the day was the bringing of about a hundred wagon loads of wood—in the procession—for the families of the brave boys, "Gone at their country's call," and Gen. Hooker was much impressed at the generous spectacle.

The War was practically ended when the polls closed that November day of 1864, for the American people had decided the War was not "a failure," as its opponents had declared.

Grant. The Revolutionary War gave us George Washington as President, after he and his brave compatriots had endured the miseries of that terrible winter of Valley Forge. The Mexican War disappointed Winfield Scott, but gave Zachary Taylor the Presidential office.

So the Civil War, still the more, and deservedly, honored our state by choosing the "Silent man from Illinois" to administer the Federal Government for the eight years from 1869 to 1877.

And Richard Yates went to Washington from 1865 to 1871, as United States Senator.

Well had his splendid executive ability and unquestioned patriotism deserved this promotion.

1876. The war was ended in 1865, but it was not until 1876, when Rutherford B. Hayes defeated Samuel J. Tilden, of New York, that the last War contest was fought in the political arena.

As must be known by all who are posted, the result of that election being in doubt until the March days of 1877, when, after the action of the Electoral Commission, Gen. Hayes was seated as President.

PLEA FOR AMERICAN INVASION OF MEXICO

Not With Military Force, But With Arms of Charity, Is Made by Mexican Financier

New York, Nov. 8.—A plea for an American invasion of Mexico, not with military forces, but with the arms of charity, is made by Don Louis Roumagnac, a prominent Mexican financier who has arrived in this city with the hope of bringing this charitable invasion to a head.

"As I see the magnificent and truly admirable generosity of America lavished without measure on the children of dead or wounded Allies," M. Roumagnac said, "I cannot but wonder why these splendid sentiments, these great philanthropic activities cannot, with the self-same organizations—especially as regards the orphans—also be sent to neighboring Mexico."

Mr. Roumagnac thinks immense advantages would result from a movement in America to aid the stricken and helpless orphans of Mexico. Many of them he would like to see brought to the United States for education, and then go back to their homes and spread a doctrine that will not only cement these two republics in strong bonds of friendship but will enlighten these 15,000,000 people, of which at present, but one tenth can read and write.

It seemed to him that altho America had a great humanitarian program, Mexico in every case and "almost purposely" was left out of this program. "Mexico," he said, "has the same rights, the same aspirations, that any other country has. After the European War Mexico will offer the United States many compensations, both industrially and commercially. It is really the only independent neighbor of the United States, but still Mexicans are not being welcomed here as individuals or as a commercial entity."

"Annoyances lie in wait for Mexican citizens whenever they cross the frontier. As business men and manufacturers, credit is closed to them, because Americans are wrongly informed on the subject of Mexico and of what is going on there."

Mr. Roumagnac thought if his idea of a small army of Mexican children being brought to this country for education could be carried out there would come "a new and changed generation in Mexico, well equipped to make the most of the resources of this country, fully appreciating the industrial progress of the American people and capable of realizing that men are enemies only when they lack understanding."

"I foresee," he continued, "a commission organized by distinguished and generous-minded citizens of both countries, and perfect harmony result from their deliberations—kindly in character because born of charity, from which politics and all idea of personal gain will have been carefully excluded. I foresee a Mexican admiring the United States of America and an American marveling at the natural beauties and resources of Mexico. I foresee respect for the rights of each grow out of mutual admiration; and thru this perfect knowledge of the two languages and this daily contact of thousands of children, I can foresee perfect harmony of interests, absolute understanding, which will secure bread and comfort for numbers of citizens of the two countries, united henceforth, and strong with the strength that comes of mutual helpfulness."

"In a similar way, in the privileged climate of Mexico, colleges and sanatoriums for physically defective children from North America would increase the diffusion of the two languages and bring about a more complete knowledge of the two countries."

If the people of North America would hold out a helping hand to Mexico, Mexico would be grateful and a number of prejudices would die out, he said.

ONE DOSE RELIEVES A COLD—NO QUININE

"Pape's Cold Compound" Ends Bad Colds or Grippe in a Few Hours

Relief comes instantly.

A dose taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end gripe misery and break up a severe cold either in the head, chest, body or limbs.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, dizziness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and snuffling! Ease your throbbing head! Nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound" which costs only 25 cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, causes no inconvenience. Be sure you get the genuine.—Adv.

On the same day that Yale and Harvard football teams meet on the gridiron at New Haven this month the graduates of the two institutions belonging to the Multnomah Athletic club of Portland, Ore., purpose to hold a wrestling tournament to determine whether the Crimson or Elms are superior on the mat.

In Boulogne, France, boxing tournaments are being held weekly by young men in the army, but the government has passed a rule that no boxer be permitted to participate unless he is declared fit by the medical staff and furthermore they will not be permitted to accept money for their services.

East Lansing, Mich., Nov. — Blacklock, the powerful tackle of the Michigan Aggies football eleven has been shifted to fullback by Coach Sommer. Butler, the regular fullback, has played fine football this season despite his injuries, but he was again hurt in the North Dakota contest and may not play another full game this season.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. — The athletic ambition of Quarterback Zeiger of the University of Michigan football eleven at last has been realized.

For three years Zeiger has been trying for a place on the eleven. Two seasons ago he would have made the team if it were not for the fact that Michigan had in Tommy Hughitt one of the greatest quarterbacks in her history. Last season Zeiger slumped, and "Jimmy" Roehm of Detroit, beat him out.

This year Sparks, the young quarterback from Jackson, Mich., became the sensation. He sustained injuries to his legs before the Syracuse game however and Zeiger got his chance. The substitute quarterback scored both touchdowns against the Easterners and played such a remarkable game that he will probably be used often during the rest of the season.

Richmond, Ind., Nov. — D. Calvert, center on the Earlham football team, probably will be out of the game for the remainder of the season. He was injured in tackling practice and an X-ray examination showed that, in addition to wrenching the muscles and tendons in his ankle, one of the large bones in his ankle was broken. The recent game with Georgetown University of Louisville, Ky., was the first Calvert has missed playing in two years.

Jackson, Mich., Nov. — It is probable that no attempt will be made this winter to re-organize the South Michigan baseball league. There have been rumors that the class C organization would again be formed, but there seems to be a general agreement among former club owners that no changes will be made at least until 1918.

OBJECT TO COUNCILMEN ATTENDING REVIVAL

QUINCY, Ill., Nov. 7.—Four members of the city council last night voted against accepting an invitation to attend in a body the Bob Jones revival meetings here, and one member of the council told the floor, to openly oppose the revival, claiming that the frame tabernacle was built contrary to city ordinances.

Mayor Abbott accepted the invitation, but stated from the floor, that the evangelist was not just in his remarks concerning city officials.

Recently local ministers were called on the telephone by unknown persons who made threats to burn the tabernacle and during an evening service a brick was hurled from the street onto the tabernacle roof.

ROAD FILES STATEMENT ON THE CAR SHORTAGE

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 7.—A statement intended to throw considerable light on the car shortage situation has been filed with C. C. McChord of the Interstate Commerce Commission, who is here to preside at the commission's formal inquiry into the subject here tomorrow.

The statement was filed by the Louisville and Nashville railroad and was made public today. It shows the percentage of cars on a number of lines on October 1 to the total number owned ranged from 33 for the Queen and Crescent route to 397 for the Central New England railway. Lines where the number of cars on their lines showed a percentage less than the total number owned by them include the Chicago and Eastern Illinois, 75, and the St. Louis Southwestern, 45.

STRIKERS RAID PLANT OF INDIA RUBBER CO.

BRISTOL, R. I., Nov. 7.—Strikers at the plant of the National India Rubber company today raided the factory of the Narragansett Rubber Company and forced the employees to quit work. No serious damage was reported and no arrests were made.

Later in the day the National India Rubber company closed its wire insulation plant, throwing 800 additional workers out of employment. Twelve hundred employees of the national company, most of them workers on lawn tennis shoes, struck last week for a wage increase of one cent a pair. The plant, which employs 3,000 persons was closed down at once.

J. H. S.-BEARDSTOWN GAME FRIDAY

Arrangements Completed To Enable Local Fans To Witness High School Game and Attend Illinois-Milikin Battle Saturday.

Arrangements have been completed whereby the football game between Jacksonville and Beardstown which was scheduled for Saturday will be played on Illinois field Friday afternoon.

The change in the date was made on account of the game between Milikin and Illinois college at Decatur Saturday. Many of the high school students wished to witness the game at Decatur and likewise a great many local fans wished to see the high school game.

Beardstown has been playing great football this year and the only game she has lost was to Springfield on Springfield's gridiron when they were defeated by a score of 9 to 0. Jacksonville also has lost but one game, that to Alton early in the season.

Since that game the Jacksonville team has been playing great football. She has defeated Rushville 14 to 6 while Beardstown defeated Rushville by a score of 29 to 9. However, Jacksonville on last Friday defeated Peoria Manual by a score of 16 to 6, and Peoria is considered in the same class with Springfield. The game will be worth seeing and if Jacksonville plays the game she is capable of playing, she should win.

ENJOIN COMPANY FROM COMPLETING ITS DAM

Chicago, Nov. 7.—Economy Light and Power company was enjoined from completing its dam across the Des Plaines river at Dresden Heights, Ill., in a decision announced by Federal Judge Landis today.

The court ruled that the river is navigable and that permission to construct the dam must be obtained from the war department.

YOU CAN'T FIND ANY DANDRUFF, AND HAIR STOPS COMING OUT

Save Your Hair! Make it Thick, Wavy, Glossy and Beautiful At Once.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few week's use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment. A 25-cent bottle will double the beauty of your hair.—Adv.

DR. GAILEY'S FUNERAL TO BE HELD FRIDAY

Death Came to Well Known Physician Wednesday Morning — Had Been Ill Many Months.

When death came to Dr. Byron S. Gailey at 1:29 o'clock Wednesday morning, at his home, 340 West State street, after a critical illness of two months, Jacksonville and central Illinois suffered the loss of a strong man and a useful citizen. Dr. Gailey was known for his professional skill over a wide area and was recognized by his colleagues as a deep and sincere student of the science he practiced. He was esteemed in high degree by the ones he served and tenderly beloved by those nearest and dearest to him. Truth pays this tribute to his memory.

Dr. Gailey will be sincerely missed and he leaves behind him a record of useful service conscientiously performed. He had a strong faith that served him well, and he performed his work here with the conviction that we go from life to life. Dr. Gailey believed in charity the greatest of all virtues and he practiced his belief, but in the most unostentatious manner.

It seems hard to understand why such a useful man, in the prime of life should be called by death, but in the face of such a mystery, unexplained, his friends and loved ones can only rejoice in the life that has been lived and go forward strengthened and sustained by the faith that was his.

Byron S. Gailey was born Nov. 9, 1875, in the town of Prentice. He was the son of Dr. W. W. Gailey, who for forty years was a highly successful practitioner in Morgan and Cass counties. His early education was received in Ashland, to which place his father moved when he was three years of age. In 1891 he entered the medical department of the University of Michigan, graduating with the class of 1895. Following his graduation he spent two years in general practice with his father in Ashland, at the same time taking a special course in connection with the diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat. In the spring of 1897, he began the practice of his profession in Jacksonville with offices in the Ayers Bank building, as a specialist in the diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat.

Sept. 29, 1898, Dr. Gailey was united in marriage with Miss Anna P. Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smith of Island Grove. The wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Brown of New Berlin. For seventeen years an unusually happy married life followed, until June, 1914, when this companionship was broken by the death of Mrs. Gailey.

In 1899 Dr. Gailey purchased the Jonathan Neely property at 340 West State street, moving his office from the Ayers Bank building and where he resided and practiced from that time until his death.

Dr. Gailey had traveled extensively and accompanied by his wife, made three trips abroad, in the interest of his profession. The first trip was taken in 1903, when he pursued studies in Berlin and Vienna. A few years later, a second trip was taken, and in the fall and winter of 1911 and 1912 Dr. Gailey was absent in Europe for a period of six months, returning to America about ten days previous to the sinking of the Titanic.

His thorough preparation and his subsequent study and travel gave Dr. Gailey a high place in his professional work and made him a man well informed and engaging as a conversationalist. While practicing his profession here he had associated with him, for nearly two years, his brother, Dr. Watson W. Gailey, now of Bloomington. For over sixteen years Dr. Gailey was the aurist for the Illinois State School for the Deaf, where his long connection and his efficient service made him highly esteemed.

Second Marriage
On June the 22nd 1916 Dr. Gailey was married the second time to Miss Bessie B. Smith, a sister of his first wife, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Brown, 1042 West State street. Following their marriage, Dr. and Mrs. Gailey took a lake trip and then went to their summer home and farm near Waukegan, Wis., returning to Jacksonville the early part of September. For more than a year Dr. Gailey had not been in robust health, and following his return to Jacksonville in the fall he became critically ill with neuritis. At times he was a great sufferer, but thru it all he displayed great patience and fortitude. During his sickness, and at all times he had the tender ministrations of a devoted wife who was unselfishly and constantly given every attention and care that love and devotion could prompt. Miss Smith had been a member of the Gailey household for many years previous to her marriage and the attachment of sister-in-law as well as that of wife was one of peculiar strength and affection.

Dr. Gailey was a member of the Central Christian church of Jacksonville, having united with that organization on Nov. 25, 1904. He was also a member of the American Medical Association, the Morgan County Medical Society, the Masonic Fraternity and the Order of Elks.

Surviving Relatives
He is survived by his wife, his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Gailey of Jacksonville, one sister, Miss Rowena Gailey of Decatur, head of the Piano department of the Decatur Musical college and three brothers, Dr. Darwin S. Gailey of Ashland, Eugene P. Gailey of Jacksonville and Dr. Watson W. Gailey of Bloomington.

Funeral services will be held at the residence Friday afternoon at 2 p. m. in charge of Rev. Myron L. Pontius. Interment will take place at Woodwreath cemetery Island Grove.

MISS DEACON WILL
WED IN NEW YORK

Society Circles in East Greatly Interested in Marriage—Bride Much Sought After by Titled Europeans

Boston, Mass., Nov. 8.—Of interest to society on both sides of the Atlantic will be the wedding tomorrow of Miss Edith Deacon, daughter of Mrs. Edward Parker Deacon of this city, and Henry G. Gray of New York.

The bride-to-be is one of the three beautiful Deacon sisters, who have been well known in the exclusive social circles of New York, Newport and Boston, and also in several of the capitals of Europe. One of the sisters, Dorothy, is now the Princess Radziwill. The third sister is Miss Gladys Deacon, who attracted so much attention abroad some years ago by the reported infatuation of the German Crown Prince for her and his desire to renounce his right to the succession and marry the American girl. Other reported suitors for the hand of Miss Gladys Deacon have included the venerable Duke of Norfolk, the premier Catholic peer of Great Britain, Lord Francis Hope, who married May Yohe, the actress, and Claude Lowther, known as the handsomest man in England.

Like her sisters, Miss Edith Deacon is in every sense of the word a cosmopolitan, for she has lived abroad and in various parts of America most of her life. Still, she calls herself a Bostonian and claims this city as her residence.

Boston knows her family well. They were for many years the leaders in Boston society, students and promoters of art and literature and foremost in public movements appertaining to these. The father of the bride-elect, the late Edward Parker Deacon, and his wife lived much abroad, however, and Edith Deacon was only a child when a sensational tragedy at Cannes led to a separation of her parents and also resulted in the confinement of Mr. Deacon in an asylum for the insane, where he died some years ago.

Miss Edith Deacon is a product of the times. An athlete, a daring horsewoman, an expert driver, a strong swimmer, she has also been one of the leaders in the younger set in the gaiety of Newport. Her mother was considered one of the most beautiful women of her time and the daughter has inherited much of her beauty.

Of late years Miss Deacon has divided her time between her mother and her grandmother, Mrs. Baldwin, in New York, Newport and abroad. In 1907 she came of age and at the same time came into possession of a large fortune. Soon thereafter she made a trip around the world, accompanied only by her maid.

Some two years ago she became engaged to George L. Peabody, member of another of Boston's leading families. Mr. Peabody died before the date set for the wedding and immediately thereafter his fiancée offered her services as a nurse to the French government and for some time assisted in the organization of the American ambulance corps.

Mr. Gray, whom she is now to wed, is a son of the late Judge John Clinton Gray of New York. Graduated from Harvard in the class of 1897, he became a member of a leading law firm in New York, and, under William T. Jerome, was assistant district attorney.

Tomorrow's wedding will take place at noon at Rock Maple farm, the country home of former Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. George von L. Meyer of this city and Hamilton, Mass. Mr. Gray and his bride will be unattended, and but few guests have been invited. A wedding breakfast will be served after the ceremony. It is probable that, despite the war, the couple will spend their honeymoon abroad.

Jacksonville High School vs. Beardstown High School, football, championship game, Illinois College grounds, Friday, 2:30 p. m. Admission 35 cents.

REWARD.

Stolen from E. A. Ranson's buggy, Nov. 5th, one heavy laprobe, one side black, the other brown, interlined with rubber. Edges brown and red. The A. H. T. A. No. 158 will give a reward of $10 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of guilty party and $5 for return of robe.
